The Recommendation Letter – Two Page Maximum

Please provide a concise overview, in addition to this nomination form, of activities with impactful examples highlighting exemplary performance and noteworthy legislative involvement. Anything exceeding the two pages (cover letters, attachments, or further comments) will not be considered. It is not necessary to address a large number of the areas listed above; rather, select the areas of strength and note accomplishments in those areas to help the evaluator assess the overall impact to the council or chapter and the uniformed services community. This makes the evaluation and scoring equitable for all those submitted.

Please submit your nomination form and recommendation letter via email to: chapters@moaa.org

Nominations must be received no later than

June 1, 2021
