

2020 Surviving Spouse Liaison Excellence Award Criteria/Guidelines

Purpose: Awarded to a surviving spouse liaison who is a member of MOAA and who has made outstanding contributions in one or more of the following Surviving Spouse Advisory Committee (SSAC) mission goals: educate, encourage, and engage.

PART 1: CRITERIA

Educate

- Conveys timely and pertinent information from SSAC and other sources to surviving spouses, council and chapter leaders, and all council and chapter members.
- Communicates to SSAC timely and pertinent news and items of interest on chapter and council actions.
- Stays informed about current issues of interest to the surviving spouse community and the legislative actions of MOAA on these issues.
- Contributes to the chapter/council newsletter and website with written articles on a variety of topics. Submits the monthly surviving spouse liaison article for reprint in the council/chapter newsletter.

Encourage

- Actively recruits surviving spouse members.
- Works to retain surviving spouses within the chapter by discovering new and innovative activities to hold their interest.

Engage

- Demonstrates leadership and willingly assumes responsibility within the council/chapter.
- Initiates, leads, and manages a project from beginning to end.
- Organizes surviving spouse/chapter community service projects.
