Reciprocal Clubs

of The Army and Navy Club

This book is for the convenience of The Army and Navy Club members. Always check The Army and Navy Club website for the most current information as this information changes frequently.

HOW TO USE RECIPROCAL CLUBS

Letter of Introduction

Members must obtain a Letter of Introduction from the Membership office on behalf of the Secretary of the Club. A Letter of Introduction should be requested for each club that will be visited. The letter(s) must be requested within 15 days of the visit.

To request a Letter of Introduction, please visit the Club website at armynavyclub.org and complete the Letter of Introduction form to have a letter sent instantly to the reciprocal club of your choosing. You may also call (202) 355-0496 to request a letter from the Membership office Monday through Friday. Please allow 2 business days for your request to be processed. Your member number, dates of visit, and the name of the club(s) visiting will be required to request a letter.

Reservations

Members must call or write to reciprocal club(s) directly to make reservations. The Army and Navy Club is not responsible for making arrangements with the reciprocal club on a member's behalf.

Length of Visit

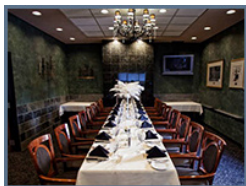

Guest privileges will be extended for a period of 15 days in accordance with our reciprocity arrangements. Most clubs limit the number of times guest privileges may be extended. Please check with the reciprocal club on the number of visits allotted.

Reciprocal clubs are listed alphabetically by state. International clubs begin on page 24.
